WOMAN SCREAMS AND SAVES VALUABLES

Frightens Burglar From the Residence of Frank Powers.

By jumping from her bed and screaming, Mrs. Horace Blum frightened a burglar in the residence of Frank Powers, 1307 Mesa avenue, at 1 oclock this morning and saved valuable diamonds and her money. The burglar, however, secured a $200 gold watch and other articles from the room of Mr. Powers. The intruder was operating at the dresser in Mrs. Blum's room when she was awakened. Seeing him at his work in close proximity to the drawer con-taining her valuables, she bounded from bed and screamed. She ran past the ourglar into the hall and collap Her screams awakened Mr. Powers, who was sleeping in a bedroom at the front of the house on the second floor. The burglar darted from the room passed Mrs. Bium, and went across the

He was groping his way along the hall as Mr. Powers turned on a light, but with the aid of the light he turned. reached the head of the stairs and fled while Mr. Powers was going from his bedroom to his den on the same floor, after a shotgun.

As the burglar ran past Mrs. Blum. who was still in the hall, she got a good from the postmaster's big ice cream fac-glimpse of him. She describes him as tory were the refreshments,

Will Still Boss the Ball Playing and Players in This League.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 17 .- The annual schedule meeting of the American league is ended and Byron Bancroft Johnson is reelected president, secretary and treasurer. His salary is said to be $25,000 a year.

The agreement held since 1910 was renewed for 20 years. A clause was injected forbidding any member to held stock in another club except as an "emergency measure," whatever that means. Uniform tickets with rain checks, like the National lengue ones, were adopted. Dates seleted will be retained whether or not the Nationals play 154 or 168 games.

Johnson is elected to the longest term on record in baseball, and 20 years is considered going some by the to first $200; 6 furlongs-Nila, 102 fans. THE SENATE'S RECLAMATION BILL IS CHANGED Gives the President Sole Power to Au-thorize New Work-Curbs Secretary's Power. Washington, D. C., Feb. 17.—The sen-ate committee on irrigation, which has the issue of $30,000,000 worth of certificates of indebtedness for the purpose of raising money to complete existing reclamation projects, amended the measure in a number of important respects. One amendment gives the president the sole authority to authorze new reclamation work, a power which has heretofore been exercised by the secretary of the interior.

The bill was amended in another respect to permit the use of the proceeds raised from the sale of the certificates jects that have been approved hereto-fore by the secretary of the interior, but upon which no work has yet been This will greatly enlarge the scope of the bill and meet the objection urged against the form of the measure as it was first proposed, that it would practically nullify executive orders heretofore made by the secretary of the interior approving projects, because the language in the first draft of the bill made the funds applicable only Another amendment exempts the cer-tificates from all forms of federal or local taxation. The certificates are to bear interest at the rate of 3 percent quarterly and are, issued in multiples Attend Springer's administrator's sale and see what you can save, even if you
